R v Dudley and Stephens (1884) 14 QBD 273 DC is a leading English criminal case which established a precedent throughout the common law world that necessity is not a defence to a charge of murder. It concerned survival cannibalism following a shipwreck and its purported justification on the basis of a Custom of the Sea. It marked the culmination of a long history of attempts by the law, in the ...

As digital technologies become widely used in designing buildings and infrastructure, questions arise about their impacts on construction safety.

Construction safety and digital design: A review

Quote HSE " Success in managing major Hazards is not measured by the Occupational Health and Safety Statistics but by measuring the performance of critical systems used to control risks to ensure they are operating as intended.. This statement is a very powerful statement and i want to stand on the premise that it should form the basis of assessing and formulating regulation regimes.
